

APPENDIX E. 2001-2002 SAR/ISIR COMMENT CODES AND TEXT

SAR ACKNOWLEDGEMENT COMMENT TEXT

- 01 We have processed your application for federal student aid, or the correction that you submitted electronically through your school or on the Web. On the back of this page we printed the information we received and a summary of the results of processing that information. We may have assumed certain information to calculate your eligibility for federal student aid. We printed any assumptions we made and the word "assumed" for those items on the back of the page. You can make corrections by going to www.fafsa.ed.gov or by contacting your Financial Aid Administrator (FAA) if:
- the assumptions we made are not correct,
 - you need to make other corrections, or
 - we indicate below that more information is needed to determine your eligibility.
- Contact your FAA if:
- we indicate below you are selected for verification, or
 - we indicate below you must work with your FAA to resolve some eligibility issues.
- 02 You need to give us more information before we can determine your eligibility for federal student aid.
- 03 If all the information on this Student Aid Report is correct, you may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant and other federal student aid in 2000-2001. Your FAA will determine whether you meet all other requirements to receive aid. The amount of aid will depend on the cost of attendance at your school, your enrollment status, Congressional budget restrictions, and other factors.
- 04 You may not be eligible for a Federal Pell Grant because you reported that you have a Bachelor's degree or are working on a degree beyond a bachelor's degree. However, you may be eligible for other types of aid.
- 05 Based on the information you gave us, you are not eligible for a Federal Pell Grant. However, you may be eligible for other types of aid.
- 06 Your application has been selected for review in a process called verification. You must submit to your school signed copies of certain financial documents.
- 07 You must work with your FAA to resolve data matching issues that resulted from processing your application before the FAA can determine if you are eligible to receive federal financial aid.
- 08 You must resolve some issues before we can determine your eligibility for federal student aid. Unless you are completing verification, it may be too late for you to make corrections or give us any more information this year. If you are still completing verification and you need to correct your Student Aid Report (SAR), contact the FAA at your school for assistance. We must have your corrected SAR no later than August 16, 2001.

- 41 To resolve your Pell overpayment, call the U.S. Department of Education at 1-800-621-3115, or write to the U.S. Department of Education, Atlanta Service Center, 61 Forsyth Street, Room 19T89, Atlanta, Georgia 30303.

- 47 There are issues with your application information that need to be resolved before your eligibility can be determined. Read this letter carefully and review any items printed in darker print on this SAR. If you need to make corrections on this SAR, you and your parent must sign the certification at the end before you send it back to us.

- 56 You reported in Item 35 that you have been convicted of an illegal drug offense. Use the enclosed worksheet to determine if your conviction(s) affect your eligibility for federal student aid. If you determine that your conviction(s) do not affect your eligibility for federal student aid, or affect it for only part of the 2001-2002 school year, you must correct Item 35 by using your SAR. You can also correct this item or get additional help with this question by calling 1-800-4FED-AID (1-800-433-3243).
YOU ARE NOT ELIGIBLE FOR FEDERAL STUDENT AID WHILE YOUR ANSWER TO ITEM 35 IS '3'. Whether or not your conviction(s) affect your eligibility for federal student aid, you may still be eligible to receive state, school, or other non-federal student aid.

- 75 You must report your marital status as of the date that you signed your original application. You should not update this item if your marital status changed after you signed and submitted your application.
- 76 There are issues with your application information that need to be resolved before we can determine your aid eligibility. Take this Student Aid Report (SAR) to the Financial Aid Administrator (FAA) at your school to get help correcting your information.
